FINAL DECISION AND ORDER

ISSUES:

Was the Student's alleged misconduct a manifestation of his disability?

PROCEDURAL HISTORY:

The Student requested a special education hearing in the above-captioned matter on June 3, 2013. This Impartial Hearing Officer was appointed to the case on June 3, 2013. Also on June 3, 2013, the Student faxed a request to rescind the Student's request for a special education hearing to the Due Process Unit of the Connecticut State Department of Education Bureau of Special Education.

On June 4, 2013, this Impartial Hearing Officer sent a letter to the Student and to the Board of Education giving each notice that the Student's request to rescind the request for a special education hearing is interpreted as a request for dismissal, and giving each until June 11, 2013 to object to dismissal of the matter. Neither the Student nor the Board of Education objected to dismissal or otherwise responded to the Impartial Hearing Officer's letter.

FINAL DECISION AND ORDER:

It is ordered that the Student's request for dismissal is granted, and this case is dismissed.
