2. Should the Board provide the Student with a 1 to 1 para-professional in order for the Student to receive FAPE in the LRE?
3. Is the Student entitled to Compensatory Education for the denial of FAPE for the 2010-2011 school year?

FINAL DECISION AND ORDER

Summary and Procedural History:

The student has been identified with Emotional Disturbance and is entitled to receive a FAPE as defined in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) 20 U.S.C. §1401 et seq. and Connecticut General Statute §10-76a. At a PPT meeting, the Parent rejected the program offered by the Board for the 2010-2011 school year. The Parent requested a 1 to 1 para-professional. The Board refused the Parent's request.

On or about January 25, 2011, the Board received notice of the Parent's request for due process. An impartial hearing officer was appointed on January 26, 2011 and a pre-hearing conference was held on February 3, 2011. A hearing date of March 4, 2011 was chosen by the parties. A resolution meeting was held on February 10, 2011. The Parent's attorney informed the hearing officer by letter that the matter was resolved and the hearing was withdrawn with prejudice. The date for the mailing of the Final Decision and Order is April 10, 2011.

THE MATTER IS DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
