10. If the Board of Education did not offer the Student a Free Appropriate Public Education for any of the above referenced periods or if the Board of Education did not evaluate the Student in all areas of suspected disability pursuant to its Child Find obligation, should the Student be reimbursed for expenses related to the Child Find violation, including the expense of evaluations and/or a private advocate?

PROCEDURAL HISTORY:

The Student requested a special education due process hearing in the above-captioned matter on July 27, 2016. This Impartial Hearing Officer was appointed to hear the case on July 28, 2016. A telephonic pre-hearing conference was convened on August 15, 2016. Attorney Piper Paul appeared on behalf of the Student and Attorney Julie Faye appeared on behalf of the Board of Education. At the conference it was established that the deadline for filing the final decision is October 7, 2016, and evidentiary hearings were scheduled for September 30, 2016 and October 27, 2016.

On September 10, 2016, the Student requested that the matter be dismissed.

FINAL DECISION AND ORDER:

It is ordered that the Student's request for dismissal is granted and this matter is dismissed.

If the local or regional board of education or the unified school district responsible for providing special education for the student requiring special education does not take action on the findings or prescription of the hearing officer within fifteen days after receipt thereof, the State Board of Education shall take appropriate action to enforce the findings or prescription of the hearing officer.

Appeals from the hearing decision of the hearing officer may be made to state or federal court by either party in accordance with the provisions of Section 4-183, Connecticut General Statutes, and Title 20, United States Code 1415(i)(2)(A).
